Robert M. Schartz is a partner with AKC Law and chairs AKC Law's Litigation Group. He joined AKC Law in 2009 after spending eleven years with another Omaha litigation firm. Early in his career, Rob served as Assistant Douglas County Public Defender, where he gained significant trial experience and won his first jury trial just six months into his legal career.

Rob devotes 100% of his trial practice to representing his clients through all stages of the litigation process from pre-suit evidence gathering and negotiations through jury trial and possible appeal. As first chair counsel, he has tried more than 24 jury cases to verdict in federal and state courts. Rob has also argued numerous cases at all levels of the state appellate courts.

He specializes in the defense of physicians, nurses, hospitals, and other healthcare providers in professional liability litigation. Most of Rob's cases involve complex medical and legal issues surrounding catastrophic injuries or death. He has acted as defense counsel on a vast number of other civil liability actions on behalf of individual clients and the client's insurance carrier. Rob has also lectured and spoken to large groups of physicians and hospital personnel on issues related to risk management and trial procedures.

Rob also has extensive experience in estate and probate litigation, providing valuable insight into the process of discovery, trial and appeal. Whether addressing claims of undue influence, testamentary capacity or the misallocation of estate assets, Rob has seen it all. His decades of experience facilitate an efficient, cost effective approach while providing the best results for his clients.

Rob is "AV" Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating for professional excellence in both legal ability and ethics. He belongs to the Defense Research Institute and is a member of its Medical Liability section, serving on its Steering Committee and as Nebraska Liaison. Rob is also a member of the Nebraska Defense Counsel Association and is listed in Best's Directory of Recommended Insurance Attorneys.

He is licensed to practice law in both Nebraska and Iowa and is a current member of the Nebraska State Bar Association, Iowa State Bar Association, and the Omaha Bar Association.

Rob obtained his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with honors from the University of Nebraska at Omaha in 1990 with an emphasis in accounting. He obtained his Juris Doctor from Creighton University School of Law in 1993.

Rob is also very active in the Omaha community. He is a member of Christ the King Parish, where he served as President of the Education Steering Committee for CTK Elementary School. Rob also serves on the Archbishop's Committee for Development for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Omaha and is a Past President of the Board of Directors for Youth Emergency Services, an organization that aids homeless youth in the Omaha vicinity. Rob also serves as President of the Old Loveland Homeowners Association.
